PROPOSED AMENDMENT

The City initiated application is to update Zoning By-law No. 79-200. The area affected by these amendments is shown on the location map. The following is a general description of the amendments proposed:

- Introduce definitions for previously undefined terms used in the by-law and update existing definitions to enhance clarity and align with current zoning standards;
- Update regulations for places of worship, including height exceptions and parking requirements, to be more inclusive;
- Update the regulation for parking in rear yards in residential zones for increased clarity;
- Update regulations for nightclubs to remove the setback from other licensed establishments;
- Update amenity space regulations in the R5 zone to include stacked townhouse dwellings;
- Update regulations to permit model homes in the R4 zone;
- Introduce back-to-back townhouses as a permitted dwelling type in the R4 zone and introduce regulations accordingly; and
- Minor technical revisions for clarity.

HAVE YOUR SAY

LEGAL NOTICE, Section 34 of the Planning Act

In accordance with Bill 185, which received Royal Assent on June 6th, 2024, the Minister, the applicant, or a specified person, public body, or registered owner of any land to which the By-law will apply, who made oral submissions at a Public Meeting or written submissions prior to the passage of the By-law, may appeal the By-law to the Ontario Land Tribunal. Third-party appeals are no longer permitted.

If a person or public body would otherwise have an ability to appeal the decision of the City of Niagara Falls to the Ontario Land Tribunal but the person or public body does not make oral submissions at a Public Meeting or make written submissions to the City of Niagara Falls before the by-law is passed, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision to the Ontario Land Tribunal.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a Public Meeting or make written submissions to the City of Niagara Falls in respect to the proposed by-law before the by-law is passed, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Ontario Land Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to do so.

If you rent your property to seven (7) or more tenants, please post a copy of this notice in a location on your property which is visible to all the residents.

DATED at the City of Niagara Falls, Ontario this 13th day of December 2024.
