Policy #: 1000.1

Issue Date: September 3, 1994

Revision Date: June 2018

Financial Assistance for Provincial, National, International Championships

- 1 The Recreation Committee will annually include funds in its budget to assist teams or individuals to participate in recreation type championships at a Provincial, National or International level.

- 2 Financial Assistance may be provided if an application meets the following conditions:
  - a. An official funding application form is completed and submitted prior to the championship.
  - b. Applicant must be an amateur athlete and resident of Niagara Falls.
  - c. Participation in the championship must have resulted from a culmination of sanctioned competitions at a local, regional or provincial level. Participation in an invitational type competition, which does not require satisfying a specific level of achievement is not eligible for funding.
  - d. Applicant shall indicate the governing body involved in the event and provide proof that they have competed successfully at sanctioned championships.
  - e. Funding under this category will be granted only to offset the participant's cost of registration fees.
  - f. Applicant shall advise of any financial assistance received from the governing body or any other source.

- 3 Approval of request may be subject to any further conditions that the Recreation Committee may see fit to establish.

- 4 Funding will be limited to one per year per applicant.
